My family and I lost everything in the fire.

Flames were crawling up the wall and had reached the roof. It was horrible! Red Cross volunteers found us and gave us each a warm blanket as well as a small bag with a few basic toiletries. Thanks to them, we had everything we needed at that moment in addition to immense comfort and support that we knew we could count on.

A tragic fire ravaged Noëlla Voyer's Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean home in June 2018. She has been involved with the Red Cross ever since.
